and said he should make no statements but what he could prove,, he then said that after this by much solicitation Cordelia went to Carters on a visit & on her return home she throw her self on the bed and said that Carter was a mean devil and was no better than Barnam & others that was whipt at the big Camp and no better than a whore mungger. After some time had elapesed Carter came to see her & on his aprouch she took her bonnet and left the house, he then enquired for her and requested her mother to git her to come in, she did so and talked with him with much reluctance and bithed in tears,
