not restrict him, but he should act in was done in all these matters, but he could not act with him in this case. However as soon as he had received instruction from the Valley to this effect he was with him and should carry out the measures to the very letter and repeated that that his instructions were to give no one liberty to go without they can take means with them to last them through, they can raise something and purchase what they need

Prest O Hyde then moved that with all respect to Bro Thomas Johnson's mission we cannot sanction every body, going with a bare out,fit,, but that those who have are fully qualified by a full outfit to agreably to the instructions we have received from the Valley.

The motion carried in the affirmative unanimouly..

Bro. Thomas Bateman presented himself on the case of Bro. H. A. Weston and said the weather had prevented his attending before when the notice was served on him..

Prest O Hyde informed him that that case had been dismissed..

On motion the council adjourned to this day 2 weeks
