He would urge upon the Council that the Brethren break off- and there by [----------] who who were wise & that this course would show who would come out at the far end.

Prest Allred told his good feelings in being at and witnessing the Dancing.

It was motion be Prest O Hyde that the time of Dancing continue until 1st of March and then close and that the Council recommend at the same time that the Brethren close their Dancing as speedily as possible. Carried---------- Br Redfield said he had done his best during the existing of the Parties-- he had been liberal to all, he had thought that the Dancing would be wound up by this time some had paid their 2 bits and got into the Dancing School which made some feelings- There has been however a general good feeling friendships and a good spirit prevailed- For his part he could say he was perfectly satisfied and enquired if there should be any restrictions placed upon the Brethren about Dancing. Councilor Buckley called for one restriction that of Liquor.

Prest Hyde made some remarks relative to the nature of Dancing-he did not look upon it as a Church ordanance Compared it to the expression of joy manifested on receiving an ample fortune and the various [====] of expressing that joy. He did not think it particularly necessary to salvation but that it was a lawful recreation.----------

Council Johnson also made remarks on good order &c - Remarks were made by Counl Biglar

Prest Hyde said there was no impropriety [===] the
