ley, Aaron Johnson, J. G. Bigler Wm Snow..

Bro. Aaron York presented a letter from the Prest of the Branch at Mt. Pisgah, which was read by Robert Campbell while the clerk was writing.. Bro. York made some explainations the Letter being in reference to some difficulty arriving between Melvin Ross,, Plaintif and Charles R. Dana, Defendant.. Dana's cattle had been destroying, Ross, corn.. The letter requested a deligate from the High Council, to see the difficulty settled, or ti send such Council they should deem necessary in the Case.. The clerk of the Council was appointed to write a letter to the Branch..

On motion the Bishop appointed Coleman Boren an acting Bishop in that Branch and called on the clerk to write as a letter of instru--ction to him as such Bishop.. The clerk wrote the Letters requested, read them and they were accepted.. He them read the Letters written to the
