Speakers J. G. Bigler & H. W. Miller

for Bigler for R. P Hartwell

After the witnesses had given their testimony some altrication took place about interested Parkes giving their testimony and reference was had to

sec. 5

Council Bigler made his plea in behalf of the very short.

H. W. Miller for the defendant.

Br Bigler said he had remarks.

R. P. Hartwell arose & stated that he found after the Ox was dead that the Ox had the consumption on his liver which was all gone and he did consider that Br Bigler must have known that something ailed the ox more then the cough & the Pres of the branch said it was a swindled game & if it was his case he should not pay for the Ox &c.

Prest Hyde made some remarks & decided as follows, That the decipion of the Bishop be sustained and the vote in council which [===tioned the decipion.

No more business was found & Prest O Hyde made some remarks relative to Thomas Johnson

He also spoke relative to selling claims & Br J. M. Benson requested to see the Council by themselves. The Brethren retired.

Br Benson then presented an idea that there was a feeling among the Brethren and especiablly among the seventies, against the Council & the Presidency here, & referred to a conversation he had with Prest Jos. Young.----------

Remarks from Councilr Coulson followed by J. M. Benson, L. Stoddard & Prest O Hyde.
