Bro. Beebee gave particulars relative to Sister

Kinney's coming to keep house for him in Montrose, and now he moved her up here.. pres. O. Hyde asked him if they had made any covenants.. Bro. Beebee said they had had some such talk, but he tho't that was a matter of their own, if they make no fuss, and trouble no one about it.. Pres Hyde said it was some times other persons business when they had made covenants, but did not consamate those Covenants, but lived together as man and wife, it then became the business of the people, and if the council...

Sister Kinney gave her statement, said they had had some talk about getting married

On being asked by the council if Bro. Beebee had ever attemted to go to bed to her or she to go to him she said no..

Councillor Harris made some remarks

Sister Kinney said she had been counsele'd to go to Bro. Beebees and that Bro. Harris had given her that council, said he counseled her to go there but keep herself clear from Bro. Beebee, and she had done so.. said she replyed to Bro. Harris at the time she tho't she knew enough to take care of herself.. Prest Hyde said he wanted know if it was the mind of the Council to know the reasons why those covenants were not cousuauated.. Some remarks be Bro. Beebee &c also by Sister Kinney she said they had agreed to be married when Bro. Hyde got home from St. Louis but their business had been such that they had not been quite ready to attend to it..

Remarks from Councillor Bulkley followed by Councillor Coulson.. He said they might take their own course, these were two ways marked
