Bro. Beebee gave particulars relative to Sister

Councillor Harris made some remarks

Kinney's coming to keep house for him in Sister Kinney said she had been counsele'd Montrose, and now he moved her up here..

to go to Bro. Beebees and that Bro. Harris pres. O. Hyde asked him if they had made any covenants.. Bro. Beebee said they had had some such talk, but he tho't that was a matter of their own, if they make no fuss, and trouble no one about it.. Pres Hyde said it was some times had given her that council, said he counsel-other persons business when they had made covenants, ed her to go there but keep herself clear but did not consamate those Covenants, but lived from Bro. Beebee, and she had done so..

Sister Kinney gave her statement, said herself.. Prest Hyde said he wanted know they had had some talk about getting married if it was the mind of the Council to know the reasons why those covenants were not cous-uauated.. Some remarks be Bro. Beebee &c also by Sister Kinney she said they had agreed to be married when Bro. Hyde got home from St. Louis but their business had been such that they had not been quite ready to attend to it..

Remarks from Councillor Bulkley followed by Councillor Coulson.. He said they might take their own course, these were two ways marked
