but as Br. godfrey [...] messenger would leave the floor in order to learn from Br. Godfrey his reason for resigning his office as counsellor Br. Godfrey arose and spoke at some length touching his traveles in the East with Wm Smith & others. Than he gave his reasons as follows 1st that Br G.P. Dykes accused him of believing in the baby resurrection & that G. P. Dykes had said he learned the cause why the brethren did not come to meeting

That it was owing to the inexperienced and inability of the officers as none of them had ever been to Nauvoo.
