the ground I said that the ground was the Churche's

I agreed that Brother Kelly should have the ground opposite his house.

I asked Bishop Knight if he has credited $5.00 whose told this story to me he never hinted that the house was his Bishop Knight said that he expected the house was traded for I [==========] making the trade since that time Brother Warthan wanted to trade the other house But Br present

A Smith took the trade in hand & I did not know how the trade went, but I throught he had traded it off.

he said he was favorable to the trade

& I considered that it was a trade.

Councellor Stoddard enquired of Bishop Knight if he had any knowledge of 15 coming to Br Warthan from Brother Yokum. Bishop Knight said he had not.----------

Councellor Buckley asked if he did not tell him that Br Warthan was to swap he house even for that place there..

He said he I believed he did.----------

Councellor Staddard enquired said he advised Br Warthan to leave his place at Pleasent Grove & move to Kanesville, he said he would if he could get both houses

He told me afterwards that he had got both houses

& moved down. Councello G Biglur said

Brother Clerk kept the[re=====] Br G A said something about making a trade & I think that the trade was made & recorded in Br Clerks Books, Councellor Benson said that Br G A told him
