those men several times,said the went to Mrs Bes frequently,, said it was two years ago..

Joseph K Lane said the winter after the brethren came here in June, he came late in the fall..

Messrs Fleming & Willson were at fathers house most of the winter,, I went to the rushes with my cattle, my family lived in the house with Mrs Bateman..

Joseph D. Lane said that Fleming came to his house to board about the middle of January,, said Fleming did not stay at his house many nights as he kept his horse at Wieks' and he generally staid there over night..

Bro. Willson said Fleming had not come to Mr Lanes when he and [=====] went to the rushes with the cattle..

Joseph Warthon said Fleming came to Wickes' to be handy to Mrs. Lane to be doctored by hes the night after Christmas..

Joseph H. Lane exeplained, said his family were at his fathers untill he took his cattle to the rushes where Willson and [=====] were, he was there about ten days,and [=====] went down home in the time, was down five days

Some remarks were made relative to matters that have never been called forth and adjudicated..

[=====] said he had been informed that Benson was tried for fellowship by Uncle John Smith before the Macedonia Branch, and was cut off from the church, and the Uncle John Smith cursed him, and that Benson had said that Uncle John was a childish old man and he did not care for him..

Bro. Ute Perkins said he was present at the trial

knew that Benson was cut off from the church but had no knowledge of Uncle John's cursing him also said that Benson was restored and baptised into the Church after wards..
