brot up the case of Bro. Henry W.Miller, one of the counselors, Remarks by pres. Alred,, the minutes of the preceeding accused of betting in a horse race.. The council gave Bro.

council was read.. Remarks from the Pres. relative Miller a chance to tell his story of his case..He stated that to the case of Thurston Simpson.. He them proved him a thief, and the council voted him cut off on Saturday last he put up ten dollars, for John P. Bearnard ,as from the Church.. Remarks and excuses for none forfeit money o a race pending beween Bearnards colt and

Switser's horse,, he also loaned John Bearnard fifty cents, but what John did with the money he did not know,, and as to his betting on a horse race he never has since he belonged

the church.. After some investigation pres. Alred stated it could be proved that he did bet on a race and the bet was his &e.. It was then moved to drop Bro. Miller from the council, fill his place and go into trial.. His place was filled by Bro. Moses Blows on for the time..
