both owned it, and he tried to buy it of each of them in order to be sure and have all the claim,, said bro Hendrise to him if he would buy the rails he would give him the claim,, and further said he went to move the rails and bro's Stewart told him if he did he would tare down his house, and there would be blood sped

9th Witness, Wm Jesseph, testified that eight weeks ago he was called upon by bro Hendrise to go and see bro Haws to assist in settling the difficulty relative to the claim.. He heard bro Haws say the rails belonged to bro Hendrise..

3rd witness H. Haws said the Indian chief sent word back by an Indian that Hendrise could have the place or claim..

Council decided that the parties divide the claim equally between them, and also divide the cost equally ,, also that one divide the place and the other choose..

The case of S. E. weeks against Hiram Gates was then taken up, this was a case appealed from the Bishops court.. The parties agreed to arbitrate and agreed on Jas. Allred for the third man.. Mr Nicks chose H.W. Miller and bro. Gates chose A. H. Perkins and the case was then submitted to them..
