Richard Thorn said he twice caught him in what Chester Loveland said there were some individuals who he called a false hood, gave the time nd place, first had expressed a dissatsfaction toward Bro. Benson's course relative to Cooley mill, and second concerning his field relative to the section of a sheriff and many were oppo and cattle.. ----- Charles M. Johnson said he had heard a sed to his preaching there. The same feeling expressed by great many persons say they would rather Bro Benson Bro John Mr. Stewart correbbonating the same.. was not one of the traveling preachers, but he could Bro C. Loveland said the cause of the uneady-ness would not tell who they were..----- Mary Stanpert said she reach back beyond the Mississippi.. had objections to his course relative to their buying

Bro. B. L. Clapp called on bro. L. Stoddard and Chas, property of him-- see her statement paper No 1, which

Mr. Johnson, to say if there is not a general dissat- isfaction was read by Prest O. Hyde and he made some re- marks relative to Bro. Benson..

Bro. John Walker said Bro. Benson course into

Bro. Stoddard said there was considerable dis- satismany feelings of dissatisfaction, and he came up again said he told him that his former course was that ,that he could find nothing in the law of God or man to justify= said also that Bro. Benson carried the idea that there was imperfections attached to deity

Bro. B. L. Clapp said another source of dissatisfaction was Bro. Benson had said that Bro. Hyde had not the right to appoint the Presiding Elders for the dances..--- Bro Albert Merrill said that Bro. said tha came to the branch where he lived, and there said that Bro

Hyde had not the right to give leave of license to Preside over a dance without the Sanction of the High Council..-
