circutated " It is hereby ordered by the municiple High

Council of the church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints

Located on the Potawatawie Land

That here after it shall not be lawful for any member of said church to sell or vend spirituous liquors on said lands.. And any such person so violating this ordinance shall on conviction before any Bishop, shall pay a sum not less than fifty cents not over five dollars, a fine for each trasnsg-ression to be collected by the marshal and appropriated to the support of the poor..

Provided that when a majoriy of any branch of the church think it nesessary for liquor to by kept for Medical or other useful purposes.. They may petition to the High Council to that effect Recommending some suitable person to retail the same at a price to be fixed by the council, and such person shall make an improper use of this privilege, it shall betaken from him, and be liable to the same fine as in the above article.. All acting Bishops to have jurisdiction in the above prenises" It is further ordered that the price for liquor ((T E)good rectified whiskey) shall not exceed fifty cents per. gal. when sold by the gallon, and shall not exceed sixty cents per. gallon when sold in smaller qauntities

Bro. S. Richards was appointed to select one to go with him and talk with Mr B. Greemore, and request him to assist from selling liquor to the members of the Church

Bro Perry Durfee wanted to know if men should be permitted to go to other men's yards and cut the timber to haul off two or three miles, robing the ones where they cut the timber so that it would compele them to leave there when other wise they could stay, and when they had timber fenced in where they are hauling the other timber to and lesse fields fenced &c, said Hamon Cutler and two young Raiments had come and cut the timber imediately around his house and yard and was going to haul it off to enlarge their fields at house when they had timber fenced in and it was robing him so he would have to leave the place..
