Pres. O Hyde said that Mr. Molholand did tell him there had been one piece coined..

Mr. Molholand said it was not finished, if I told you it was I was mistaken.

Pres. Hyde said you told me you would have nothing more to do with it, this was admitting you had, had something to do with it..

Pres. Hyde said I do know, there is a press, and it has been at the Ferry, I know the shop, and the cornor, and the Box that contained it,, and Mr. Molholand has been concerned in it.. There are others who are connected in it,, not more then twenty miles down the river.. I know there can put my hand on them.. Some of party have said they were willing to give it up but they were afraid their throats would be cut.. Then said

I for fear your throat will be cut, you with subject this whole community to the liability of having all their throats cut..

Mr. molholand said he did not consider it necessary to call on any witness; he should have something to say when it was proper..

Counsellor Silas Richards spake in behalf of plantif,, showing in a short consise maner that plantif was correct in the stop, he had in order to put away iniquity from our midst..

Counsellor Moses Clawson spake for Defendant reasoning with much propriety and exhorting he's client to a reformation

Defendant said Mr Hyde had told some of their talks but not Mr. said he fold him that Messrs Smith & Benson had a press all but the big screw and wanted to know if screw would fit their press
