Geo. A. Smith 8th witness,, testified that Glines was sent back, but he did not know the porticultors ..

The transfer if Willsons debt from by Glilnes to Thorn called up..

Asahel Thorn stated that he and Glines had a job of building a house for Willson.. The job amounting to $40, it being, $20, more,,that Glines had made rails to the amount of $20. more,, said Mr. Willson agreed to write a note for the rails and leave with his wife as he was going away,, but refused to give a not for the other as it was a writen contract and said Glines order would be as good as a due bill should he sell it or leave an agent to collect it,, said the order was given and the whole account transfered on the 29 of April, 1848,the order was accepted and the due bill given by Mr.

Willson, by order of Mr. Willson he having to Iowa.. On the 8th of June 1848, Mr. Willson had returned and he called on for his but Mr.

Willson refused to pay the $20. on contract and order said Mr. Stewart had garnishied the debt and the trial was to come off in thirty days,, that before the thirty days were up Mr Glines had come home the trial had been had and judgement in favor of Mr. Stewart..

John B. Willson.. Stated that the garnishee was served on him before the order was presented,, but the trial did not come off untill after Mr. Thorn presented the order,, said he had been notified by Mr. Eams that the debt was transfered to Mr.

Thorn before he went to Iowa and the garnishee was served after his return..
