Councillor Lyman Stoddard said Joseph

K Lane had said he would cane Bro, J. M. Benson if the Council should decide so and so in the difficulty between Bro's Benson and [=====] but he being acquainted with both families and at home at either place considered it the passion of the moment, and tho't best to say nothing about it,, but have labored diligently to get the conflicting parties to settle, but finding, no chance only for it to come before the Council and father Joseph D. Lave speaking to me the other day says Benson had better keep clear from Joseph, as he would certainly beat him, I then tho't best to apprise Bro. Hyde of it and let him know their feelings, and I do not know but Bro Benson will censure me for not letting him know there was danger, for

I have not made to known before, to him..

Bro. Jos. K Lane made explanation, the things if which Benson had accused his sister, which he had every reason ti believe false, so exasperated

him that he felt just like caneing Benson and he still felt the same way if Benson did not take that back, yet he was willing to leave it with the High Council, and abide their decision..

The case of [=====] Bro.

Jerome M. Benson was bro't up, after some explanatory remarks the clerk read the charge against

Councillor J.M. Benson..

On motion Councillor Benson was suspended from the Council during the investigation, and Bro.

Harlow Redfield was chosen in his place Pro. Ten.

On motion two were appointed to speak on a side,, Jas. Allred & Aaron Johnson for plaintiff Ira Oviatt & Geo. Coulson for defendant
