tions

Counselor S. Richards he would like to have the parties

by Counselor Miller on arbitrations, choosing arbitrators

say what they wanted so the council would know

&c.. The case was then dismissed.. Pres. Jas Allred what to do.. Bro Hendrix said he wanted to have it said Bro. Blocksom had been to him relative to settled to day.. Bro Stewart said he had never

some property left by old brother Cragun at his his claim known, and he was not willing to have it deseace.. Bro. Blocksom was not present,, Pres.

settled by any committee who had given their views previous, the parties agreed to choose arbitratons here by the Indians when they removed from this and settle it at house.. Counselor Stoddard remarked section.. Some remarks on this subject,, Counselor he was not satisfied with the remarks of Bro.

L. Stoddard made some remarks relative to the Stewart concerning the committee, concerning their case of those horses sold in Missouri,, said the having passed previous judgement.. Bro Stewart said he wished to be understood that he was not willing to be judged men had confessed to him previous to the horses being found,,had now paid for them and wished to know if there to as any thing more for them to do to obtain an acquital & salvation,, he said these were some men who were as deep in the mud as they were in the mire, who were throwing it up to then women and wanting to become their saviors &c..Counselor Wm. Draper moved that they be acquitted and have the privilege of saving their own women &c Carried..

The inquiry was as made if the witnesses on the case of Stewart & Hendrix be paid &c..

Council voted that the committe decide that..
