Bro hyde spoke relative to members not having attached their names to any branch, stating that none need think to escape being dealt with, for according to their Covenants at the times of baptizm to be obedeant to the authorities of the Church..

they are subject to the nearest branch where they live..

Conferance adjourned tomorrow 11 ock.

Benediction be Elder Stoddard.

July 4/47 11 oclock meeting opened according to appointment by singing Daughter of Zion from the dust Exholt the head Prayer by E. M. Greene.. bro Hancock sung the true born songs of Zion.. Prest G. Hyde remarked that he wished perfect order through the Congregation,, said no people enjoy life better then those who are poor but industrious,, much happens than those who role in luxure,, as same were not here yesterday he gave a summary of the proceedings of the 3rd inst:

let us remember the principles of righteousness taught us by our parents,, according to information and disclosures some have comied on a work of he baser sort and then fled to this place for safety. if so we shall find them out, and they had better go into a honnssets nest,, many and sunday remarks relative to such a course of conduct, those who will not make such disclosures when knowing them, their faith shall leave them as a pool of water will evaperate in the hot summer sun, and as the earth neat where the water stood bakes up and cracks open and is still raw, so shall their condition be.. he said these was a principle connected with the sealing power and adoption which he would give to the authorities, that they might Communicate in their sphere. After some remarks relative to the situation if the brethren on the other side of the river proposed to send them some provizons to sustain the guords and the poor, the following brethren agreed to contribute

William Strong 13 years old steer, H. W. Allison 1 cow

Tand Gates 12 year old bufen
