on the case- He said if she was not paid within the time he should be as blind as a Beetle He also considered the Letter as an insult to this Council.----------

Remarks were also made by Councellors Johnson & Prest Hyde. Councillor said he thought the cattle were worth 40 dollars. Councillor Benson said she was willing to have steers of the same age and value. Prest Hyde said he had kept them one year. Let him hand over 4 year old steers. Br Redfield thought if the wagon is not so good he should make that good also Council Coulson wished to have the property appraised at a proper valuation that the might receive it according.

Council prest Hyde received the notion in the following manner.----------

That he pay her 52 dollars in whatever may satisfy her by the 1st of March or be cut off from the Church. Carried----------

It was also moved by Prest Hyde that the waggon be delivered to her by Br Clellans Br in law did that if is not in as good repair Br Loveless shall repair it

Prest Hyde enquired of the Council if it is the duty of this people to send for and support the families of those who have stolen property that property being found on them.---------- such person[=] fly here and by taken into custody to await the action of the law & the governor requisition to take them.----------

Council Harris thought that [==========] women & children being member of the Church ought not to suffer the consequences of such results and be left in the hands of our enemies. Councillor Miller agreed with Council Harris but thought nothing should be done
