High Council met persuanted to adjournment Councilor All present Prest O Hyde also present Prayer by N. S. Baukeley, the former minutes read by that clerk Pro temo R Campbell, The minutes were accepted.----------

The Clerk Campbell presented an appeal case from before the Bishop A Johnson which case was presented without the Transoript, and Bishop Johnson said it was not customary to take testimones in writing. An enquire opened by Councilr Harris, if it is not the duty of Bishops to take testimony some remarks by Prest Allred followed & by prest Hyde who said it was a great task on Bishops to keep minutes and that some means should be devised in such cases to pay And the Council should drop such techincalities and not stop to establish a president. The case was between Jacob Bigler & Reubin P Hartwell

Br Bigler made his statement of the contract between him & Br R. P. Hartwell, said that Br Hartwell came to see him to buy an Ox of his that was sick and that he told 15 Hartwell that he would take ten Dollars & Br Hartwell proposed to give him a cow which he said was worth 12 dollars and Brother Hartwell was to bring the cow
