unprepared for an investigation- the case was then put off two weeks.

Bro. E.M. Greene arose & said he had been absent from the council considerable for the past three months, said it was not from a wish to not serve the Council or the church but that it was out of necessity to attend to business that would bring him means to provide for the necessaries of his family that his mind & spirit was with the council & that he should attend as steadily as possible & that he would attend to the recording of their minutes and see that the record was kept up- His report was satisfactory- Bro. L. Stoddard arose and gave the ===== High Priests some instruction concerning tything &c. Bro. Archibald Patten arose & said that he had adminis-
