brother Lucius Bingham agreed to see Craig and get with Lovelace's discription.. Sister Jemsia Smith stated place but not finding the head, he called on that Furgerson's ox was at their house the night before

Bro Lovelace and inquired what for an ox he had Lovelace killed the steer,, also Lovelace sent them killed,, he said it was a steer two years old that some beef on sunday and some more on monday,, followed him and Willson from Bonepast.. He then that the Willson steer was killed on saturday and

went to Bro. Willson and found they killed the steer at Bro Willson house.. By the council of Bro Amosa Lyman

other on monday,, stated that Love lace said at their he took two Brother and went to Bro. Lovelace and house he had killed but one and then in conversation laid the case before him, and he expressed a good deal said they both were young.. Bro Winn stated that Lovelace

of anger.. Bro Jeramiah Bingham, stated he went and Willson killed a two year old steer and it was under-- with bro. Furgerson to see bro Lovelace and he expressed a great deal of anger,, but said no one but bro. Craig stood to be the one they drove from Bonepast,, it was yellow and his own family knew the steer and he would have and red had stayish horns.. Bro. Gideon wood said it to bro. Craigs discription of the steer to decide it and

Bro Winn had described the steer nearly but not quite.

said it was pale red and white -----with stayish horns.. Numbers of the brethren said Bro. Willson had told them the steer they killed at his house was the one they drove from Iowa..

Ineremission 10 minutes..

Elizabeth Willson testified she knew the steer that her brother and brother Lovelace killed, and it was the one they drove from Bonepast..
