December 8th 1849,, The High Council met pursuant to adjournment in the school house in Kanesville.. Councillor Jas. Mc Leallean opened the council by prayer..

On motion Councillor N. S. Bulkley was called upon by vote to give a statement of Jos. Worthans house claims.. Councillor Bulkley said that Bro. Worthan claimed a house that was given into his and Bro. Jacob Myers hands as bishop, on tything at $5,00.. Councillor Johnson said Bro. Worthan told him he was to have the house in question when it was empty..

On motion this case was laid over to next council

The following "copy of a charge" preferred by Edwqard Mecham against Joseph Kelly; and the decission " as rendered by the quorum of the seventies" was presented to the High Council..

Copy of the charge..

" Bro. Joseph Young Prest of the quorums of the seventies, I hereby prefer a charge against Joseph Kelly for beating my body, contrary to the laws of God and man, for which he has not sought to make any redness, nor give satisfaction to his brethren.

Edward Meacham

After a fair and full investigation, the following decission was rendered by the chairman,and sanctioned by a Quorum of sevenites, and the congregation assembled..

Deeission

" That Bro Joseph Kelly go to Bro Edward

Meacham and confess the wrong, and ask Bro. Meacham what recompence will satisfy the Laws of God, and unless

Bro. Joseph Kelly does this, he cannot have the fellowship of these Quourms,, so saith the spirit that is in me, amen!"
