Bro A. H. Perkins said he believed him to be a pretty good old horse and his judgment was that the horse was 14 or 15 years old.. Pres. Allred dedeced that the charges were not sustained, Council voted to sustain the decision, the minutes were then read and excepted.

reported the No. of stray cattle taken to the rushes last fall by the herdsmen,, to by 115,, and accounted for 105 this spring.. Councils accepted the report,, several of

council complained of Robert King for profane swearing taking the mane of God in vain, Counselor Caulson said he saw said R. King seting on the bank of the river one sabbath evening and heard him say that he had said by God he would never be a Mormon till

river run up stream,, but now said he by God I'm a mormon for the River runs up stream,, but soon

current took a log that was floating upstream in an eddy and carried sown stream again,, now said

King I'll be Dam; if I'll be a mormon any longer for the River has turned down stream again..

Council then cut R. King off from the Church by unanimous vote. The minutes of the trial between Meekam and Carter was then read and ordered to be recorded.
