5th witness Atmon Williams.. He heard R. P. Stewart he was ready to furnish the provisions if Mrs. Glines could go in Franklin Stewart's waggon.. Says the pioneers started, Ellis Eams having R. P. Stewart's rifle.. At pawnee town Ellis Eams changed guns with Glines.. When returned F. Stewart sent $24. to R. P. Stewart,, $15 to pay R. P.S. for his gun and $9. for his brothers to bring him some groceries..

He heard F. S. say that was what he sent the money for.. Said F. Stewart wrote a letter to the same effect.

Says the gun was traded for cattle.. Says F.Stewart said to his Brother in the letter he might take the $15. for the rifle if he chose to, or if tho't it better he might have a share of the cattle when he came to the Valley.. He heard R. P. Stewart say he was to take Mrs. Glines to the Valley,, also that Glines was to work for their mutual interest, heard Glines say the the same he heard R. P. Stewart say he did not send her for lack of team.. He bro't the letter from Franklin Stewart to R. P. Stewart..

6th witness.. A. J. Stewart,, Testified that at a meeting to raise pioneers, Otho Wells agreed to send a team and waggon in charge of Bro. Glines, also to furnish a waggon to carry Mrs. Glines and R. P. Stewart agreed to furnish her provisions.. Glines returned the first one of the pioneers, and reported the sale of guns for cattle, according to the above testimony,, with regard the letter sent back &c testified the same as above.. He did not know that his brother had ever demanded the money of Glines.. He had asked for the $9. so as to send on the groceries to his brother..

Said Glines told him he was sent back with a company to pilot the other company.. Wells did not sent his team because the company did not get wheat as they agreed to..

7th witness 6 T. Benson, testified that Glines was sent back because the council could do nothing with him..
