claim then,, and Bro Haws told him, his boys were making a claim there,, this took place about the time the Indians left the place,, 3rd witness Nathaniel Haws testified that he and his father and brother worked on the claim last fall,, testified that Handrise claimed the rails,,also said that Burt stated when he went on there he expected there would be a fuss about it,, but he would let them fuss it out and then he would buy the claim of the one that gained it..

4th Rufus P. Stewart testified that he was present when his brother paid Haws for the claim, he never heard

Haws say he did not claim the rails, did not know that any one claimed the land but his brother after he bo't of Haws, he heard Haws say he bo't the claim of the Indians chief.. A certificate from Johnin A Hardin as testimony on the part of the planitve was then presented

5th witness,, Sarah Hendrise, testified that her husband bo't the rails of the Canada boys, and she heard the chief promise the claim to her husband,, and further testified that she saw [-----] Cline handing off the rails and she requested him to stop and he did so..

6th witness, Henry Ettleman,, testified that some time last summer he told Bro Hendrise to buy the claim of

Indians, and he would take it if he could get it at a low rate,, but knew nothing of the purchase only what bro. Hendrise told him,, further testified that

Indians told him he might go to work on the place if he would not interfere with the corn,, did know that Stewart had any claim on the place..

7th witness Wm B. Simmons testified that he was not present at the time the bargain was made, but heard bro. Stewart say after Bro Burt had moved onto the claim he was sorry for he meant to have bo't the claim if he did not go to the Valley..

8th witness,, W.. Burt testified that he heard that Bro's Haws and Hendrise had each bo't the place and
