Councillor Geo. Coulson after refering to some things spoken by Peter Haws.

At the preceeding Council said the prerogative of this Council was to act on the case of these men in their absence as they had not appeared after [-----] ending the adjournment,, Said that Haws acknowledged the Authority or jurisdiction of this Council in offering to meet it the next days said Peter Haws did tell him that they made bogus money in Nauvoo, said he pulled out a mexican dollar from his pocket and showed saying he helped to make as good as that in Nauvoo.. In that he lied [--] I shall not follow ship him untill he makes a confession to me whether he's cut off or let to stick on.. He then moved that Peter Haws and Lucian Woodworth with out any further ceremony be cut off from the church, for contempt to the authorities of the church, and endeavoring to sour the minds of the people toward their leaders..

Testimonies taken-

1st witness Lorenzo Clark said he went to see Bro Haws about a mule , he went in and set down and brother Haws began about the gold mines there was a prospect of gold these parts..

He knew it might do every man good he would not be so penurious as Elder Hyde and others were he would say every man come on boys, dig what you please..

They have got as set off tools to work it, they can do nothing.. They have got together and prayed that they might have success in melting it.. This is not Gods way,, There is a way to melt it..

These testimonies should have come in after the seconded sentence on page 142.
