stealing the blanket said he prove he had the blanket before he was at

Bro Stuarts,, but wanted to know if there were any other marks about the blanket that would be notice sister Stuart said there was some small hole that had probably been burned in and that showed themselves when she washed it..

King denied there being any holes in the blanket,, but on another search they were found visible in the lower part of the skirt.. The council decided the blanket to be brother Stuarts and decided that King should restore four fold,, being left in the Marshal's hands until he settled it he soon came forward and confessed his transgression,, and then went off with the marshall to turn out property to settle the bill..
