1st Killing an ox not his own,, and 2nd stealing a grind stone in Mo. Bro Lovelace came forward and stated relative to the grind stone, in the fall of /46, he and his two sons were at work at Mr. Christian Kinder's in Athison Co. Mo. and during their work he asked Mr Kinder if there was any grindstone grit in his -----bor hood, he replied there was not.. He then said to Mr Kinder that he would like to buy a small grindstone that was out in his yard if he would sell it.. Mr K. said it was so small he should never use it, and he might have it in welcome.. He then took it when he came away without saying anything further about it.. Pres. Hyde then read two letters from said Kinder, relative to the grindstone..

1st Aug. 5th 2nd Sept 22nd /47 the letters also charging ----- Lovelace with having stolen his iron wedge..

Bro Lovelace said as to the wedge he saw no wedge while he was at work there.. Bro. Hyde called for evidence on the case.. Bro Gideon Wood stated that he and Bro. Garner called at Mr C. Kinder, and he was not at home,, but his girl told them that Mr Lovelace did steal the grind stone and wedge, and had never been there since.. Moses Daily stated, that Kinder told him week before last, he had never seen Lovelace since he took the grind stone said the stone was 7 of 8 inches across Pres. Hyde moved that Bro. Lovelace take the stone back to Kinder, or give it into the hands of Bro Jas Alred to be forwarded forth with,, and further that he send money

enough to pay for what it has been used,, voted too unminously Pres. Hyde then called for those who knew concerning the ox.. bro Isaac Furgerson came forward, stated he had lost an ox, and Richard Williams told him, that Lovelace had killed one about half a mile from his camp,, said

Williams sent his boys with him and they found the
