continue to poison the minds of this people

He also gave a history of the course and was

[-----] of the sunday following the previous Council..

Pres. O. Hyde moved that the unfinished business be taken up,, seconded by Councillor Geo. Coulson motion carried

Pres Geo. A. Smith said with regard to jurisdiction, any Council that had jurisdiction over an high Priest, had jurisdiction over Peter Haws and Lucian Woodworth,, gave some sketches from a conversation he had with Peter Haws yesterday and this morning said at the close of their talk Haws said he would not urge any claims, but try to role with the Church.. If he had been cited to a trial he would have come to the Council ad it was a matter of claim and jurisdiction be tho't he had best not come as he was hasty, and things might be said that he would be come excited and say things that he should be sorry for or that would not be right..

Pres. O. Hyde said many men when they they see there is not chance, like the Tortoise draw in their head and crawl away from the Thons.. If those men had a spirit of repentance they would come before this Council and confess their wrongs.. The spirit of those men is not to join with the church in the Valley or here.. It is like another spirit,, men have covenanted to put into our hands a bogus press,, but it does not come,, now we will let them.. I am not disposed to trifle with them..I will not trifle with any man..
