President Allred asked bro Wood if he was ready for trial, bro Wood said that he did not know what he was to be tried for.
Counselor Wm snow moved that brother Miller explain the items of the charges to brother Woods, curvied.. Brother Miller said that he should prove that brother Wood had taken a cow not his own, and that he said she be longed to a certain brother.if not he did not want her, but finding she did not belong to ham, and that brother Brigham wanted him to keep her till spring , brother Miller said that he should further, prove that brother Brigham Knew nothing about the cow , and that he Woods had spoken with Contempt

with regard to this Council.. Sister Eliza Ann bornard testified that brother Woods took a cow out of their yard, brother Woods claimed the cow for bro ther Hill, the cow had a bell and rope on her neck brother Woods confedded he took the cow, and that took the bell and rope off brother Francy Williams testified the cow was red, had a white spot in the fore head, and had a small bell on, hung with a rope, three times round her neck, Jacob Bigler testified that he went to brother Woods and called for the cow telling him he had authority from the council to take her.
Woods told him he should not give her up, and if any man took her he would shoot him, Bigler said he them got help and went their where he found the boy loading guns, and Woods stated

the cow was locked up and if they got her it would be at their peril, also that the council were a pack of fools

that he had heard from then but twice and all was a pack of black guards , and he then picked up the poking stick to fight.
