he had he had made a trade with

Warthan for Yokum and thought he had traded

2 House's one----------

Warthan being called upon said that Brother Stoddard &

Geo A were together and they told me that I had better leave I saw both the Houses, One that Br Yokum

Yokum had and the one that the woman was living in. He said he should not have the woman into the street and should considerable proff of his claim to the House----------

Councellor Harris said that from the testimony, given the House is Br Warthan's----------

Councellor Stoddard also gave similar testimony

It was motioned that the House was given into the hands of Br Warthan which rightly belongs to him.----------

Councellor Benson spake of the disatisfaction arising from various branches some of the Brethren living about 50 miles from this place were not able to reach those who presided over the Dance

He had appointed some of the Presidents of the Branches. Also spoke of the disorder in some of the Parties and the repoofs he had given & he wished to submit his course for the approval to this Councel.----------

Councellor Stoddard apposed this Idea of making so many Presidents to preside over Dances as it makes so much confession. And that one of these Councellore had introduced cards.----------

Remarks was made by President Hyde & Councellor Bigler on this subject- Councellor Coulson said he thought Br

Benson's councel was not to rigid-That taking the Lord's name in vain& having man whose breath rather smell of Liquor in them I order one man whose conduct was not becoming the occasion; I will mention his name It was Woodward- And several remarks were made were made on the nature of order on Dances
