The case of Bro's Jas. Cragum and Rlonhams was then presented to the council.. This is a case of property left by the father of Bro. Cragans for support of his widow.. Bro Cragan testified that he covenanted with his father in his death bed that he would take care of his step mother and take her to the final settling place of the Mormons, and use his fathers property to carry out his Covenants,, he further stated that his step Mother has since married , and she and her husband now claim the property, and he wants to
