until they could by sustained at the return of harvest, nature of the verbal instructions he received in the Valley that he had acted under written instructions that he had and said his teachings abroad had been that the received under the seal of the Presidency from the Valley

Brethren should gather up and go to the Valley and not from the verbal instruction of any other, that Bro.

of the Salt Lake with all they raise to carry with them,

Johnson come with the mail bringing those instructions and his exhortations to the brethren were to go the Valley and stated also that Bro. Johnson had not been to the Valley if they had to go in rags if they could provide only a sufficient of provisions to last them through, by all means go..

(referred to the Frontier Guardian containing the items of that instruction.)

and stated also that Bro. Johnson had not been to the Valley

He then appealed to brother Hawkins to bear witness of the since that time, & urged upon the Brethren the necessity of truth of these instructions, being given him by Prest B. Young waiting for the arrival to the maid from the Valley before Prest O. Hyde said he had Counseled the Brethren to take he could give Council for the coming Spring..

not less than nine months provision to sustain Bro Johnson wished to know if he should hold still in the mission that Prest B. Young had given him..

Prest O. Hyde said he did not feel like Counciling him but he had to do with the instructions he had received and Council accordingly..

Councillor William Snow said he did not like the spirit that prompted the remarks of Bro. Johnson they seemed to him to savor too much of a wish to control and to have his own way, regardless of the Council here.. Bro. Johnson seems to think the Council here has no right to dictate or control his course, be it what it may because he had received his instructions from Prest

Young.. Referred to Bro Whitehead & others that had received instructions and had missions appointed them, but when they stepped out of the line of their missions they were controlled.. Not that I speak of this to accuse Bro. Johnson
