arrisen between him and the Perkins family relative to claims..

Remarks from several of the Councillors, and the council advised Bro. Morris to try to settle the difficulty between themselves,, or by arbitrations and dismissed that subject from the Council.. The house was then cleared of all that did not belong to the Council, and the clerk read the minutes of the preceeding Council, and they Council,and they were accepted. Bro. Harlow Redfield was called to take the place of Councillor Ira Oviatt..

Bro. William A. Beebee came forward and stated that Bro. O. M. Allen had informed him that Hiram Bostwick was able to go on a hunt the monday succieding the the council day that he was notifyed to attend here.. It was proposed to lay it over as Bro. Bostw--ick was not present.. Councillor Coulson opposed the laying it over for certain reasons..

The Council called for a statement of the case.. Bro. Beebee gave a statement, and then Councillor Coulson moved that it be paid over two weeks and the clerk be instructed to write Brostwick a notice.. The motion carried in the affimative.. The clerk wrote the notice..

Bro. William Morgan, President of the Welch Branch said there was a difficulty existed between the Welch Branch and Bro. William D. Lewis, that said Lewis had been disfellowship by the Welch Branch, and that said Lewis had then been received by the Centerville Branch and put forward to preach by that Branch..
