out , one was to seperate which if they do ,and have been guilty of adultery. The Book of D. C. says the spirit of the Lord shall withdraw from them and they shall deny the faith,, but if they shall now marry it shall make them becl honorable..

Prest O. Hyde said it was his mind,also Councillors Aaron Johnson and James Allred Prest O Hyde said above all things on this Council we should advance just, correct, and equitabl sentiments,, his remarks were very pertinent and appropriate Prest. O. Hyde that they either marry before the next sitting of the council approved the dicission by vote and they were dismissed from the Council..

Prest Hyde then said the case of [==========] wanted sung to, that said A. Babbitt told him that he was living in a state of adultery with a womon in his family and it was a matter of grief to his family.. Councillor Geo. W. Harris said he had talked with him, and he agreed to see bro. Hyde, and called for a bench warrent..

prest Hyde said he wanted to know the remedy &c. After a short consultation if the council on these matters the council ordered the clerk, by vote to write a notice for [==========] and Councillor Wm Snow was sent to serve it..

While Councillor Snow was gone the clerk read the former minutes and they were accepted..

Prest O. Hyde presented some
