not seen anything criminal, said he was a great deal romancing,, he had seen[=====] of plass sit upon the laps of some of the young Ladies, fondling with than.. I heard some one say that [=====] belonged to some tribe of Indians but I considered that mere like 3rd Abraham Coons, said he knew[=====] and could not say any thing against him, said he had seen[=====] gallanting girls to meetings lyceums, evenings schools &c but tho't he was with friends, and did not think his intentions were evil, as I have never seen anything endeorous in him..

4th Geo P. Dykes said he knew bit little of [=====] tho' he lived a neighbor to him and have frequently seen him pass to and from meetings lyaums, and evening schools &c I saw him at one time put his hand upon a young Lady's shoulder, at another time I saw him set on a young lady's lap, and at another saw him put his hand in a lap, she was stringing beans and had them in her lap it about dinner times I think also that I have seen him kiss some of our young ladies, and seen him walk the street with some the ladies they were not very close together and other individuals were along.. 5th Mrs. Benson said she had frequently seen [=====] and the young woman refered to in Prest Hyde testimony going into the woods together to hunt cattle, and at the time refered to I saw the girl meet the cow down by the side of Mr. Wicks field,, she did not return when she met the cow but proceeded on the the woods, and then the and[=====] returned from the same direction one about three fourths of a hour after the other,, Mrs. Benson said also that when she would send her girl to the spring
