and that the injured party make the penalty there by throwing penalty and responsibility upon the injured party to the prejudice of the offending party in stead of taking the responsibility upon the court.. He spake also upon the jurisdiction of superior courts, the Twelve and seventies, as representatives of the first Presidency, and their jurisdiction, that the Twelve has the directing of the affairs of the Church, agreeable to the Book of Doctrine & Covenants in all matters of jurisdiction, and that the High Council being the located Authorities, have the superior Jurisdiction authority where there are stakes of Zion, and concluded his remarks by saying, that as there is no decision whatever and no penalty fised by the Authority of the Quorum of seventies, that this case ought to be submitted to the High Council,, and begged to be excused from the Council as he had some important business to attend to.. His excuse was accepted, and on motion his request was granted ..

Carterville,, and presented to the High Council was read by Bro. David

Candland, and Bro. Edward Mesham was inform that he could bring forth more testimony if he had any.. Bro. Abraham Durfee being called said he was the one that laid for the fence..

J. Kelly's [===] How did you tell me the line run..

Ans. I told you the line run between my garden and the field..

Bro. E. Meacham said Bro. J. Kelly came to me, to know what I would do with him, said he was in my hands and wanted to know what would satisfy me our feelings were good, I told him I had suffered
