has lied about me with any cause I am will ing to forgive him,

Pres Hyde asked Carter what he had to say to that.

Pres Hyde told him to go on and have it settled on the spot, Bro Benson stated that Carter had with-out any Carter said that he did not know that Benson had rtied to just cause or provocation lied about him, and had spoken git them away from him, but he had seen Benson about slanderosly of him and tried to do him all the harm that he could there and said that had lied about him without and cause in every way that tongue was master of, and that he had even what ever.. pres Hyde than arose and said that in as nuch went so far as to throw deadly weapon at him, and that his as bro Carter had plead for mercy he would call a vote of the malice drew out of the idea that he (Benson) had treid to git house,, it was moved and seconded that mercy be extended his girls away from him, and he further stated that he had towards bro Carter,the vote was unanimous in the affirm-called upon the parents of the girls to state whether he had done ative. Pres Hyde then said notwithstanding all this bro Carter any such thing, or even intimated such a thing and they said that he heart is not right before the Lord and I shall deliver him over had not, and now said he if Carter is willing to acto the buffitings of satan and there shall a spirit arise in his family that will give him great trouble, and treated longely an the native of covenants, showing that no man had a right to make any covenants without first going to the first Pres of the church and giting the word of the Lord, and then going to the parents or gardens and obtaining libery from then, then corrected J. Meakham false notions of the nature of

of Covenants and Commanded him to teach then
