last Council.. Then excused were accepted

Bishop Aaron Johnson volunteered to notifyed Bro. Beebee of the charge against him and of the place of meeting &c Remarks be Prest Allred, and excuse from H. W. Miller for none attendance, which was received,, Prest O. Hyde came in..

The case of W. A. Beebee against Hiram Bostwick was laid over 2 weeks, Bostwick having sent in his request on account of his being sick.

The case of Bro. Isaac Beebee was called up by Councillor Geo. W. Harris, Bro. Bee bee being called upon said he was ready for trial Prest O. Hyde proposed a private council, and made some remarks, and the refered it to Bro. Beebee.. Bro Beebee said he for his own part was not particular, but tho't perhaps Sister Kinney who was not present but had been called for would prefer the Council alone..

Prest Hyde wished Sister Kinney called in, Bro. Beebee went for her.

The Council refered to the president the task of making the inquiries..

While Bro. Beebee was absent after Sister kinney Councillor G.W. Harris moved that Bro. J. E. Johnson he cited to appear before the council during this cession,, some remarks followed, and the motion was seconded, and carried

Bro. Beebee and Sister Kinney came in, and Prest O. Hyde opened the case with some very appropriate remarks, and wanted to know if Bro. Beebee and Sister Kinney had made any promises relative to marriage, and why it was that they should this live together
