He thinks he saw Bro. Peter Haws, one of twice sell liquor to the Indians,, genrealy he seemed to have a great concern for the interest of his son or for himself,, as he took much pairs in seeing to the sale and purchase of ponies &c,, business generally done from 9 ocl.P. M. to 3 ocl. A. M. .. I quit boarding there on that account.. I contracted with Bro Haws himself.. They paid from 1 gal. to six gallons of liquor for a pony,, bro Haws is himself the governor of the house..
3 witness John Thompson said here were some furs deposited in his house by Alpheus Haws said that Haws complained he had a hard time, and he wanted to make it up if he could, and he bro' t them there to keep them secret,, said he made no inquiries..

4 witness Pres. O. Hyde said at a meeting at Bro Jas. Brownings he said if any man sold liquor to the Indians or allowed it to be done in his premises, the son of peace should leave his habitations the spirit of God should leave his heart, and he be left in a snare when there is none to help.. Bro Haws then rose and said there were some things in this Church that are not right it is wrong to sell whisky to the Indians and other things are not right.
He then lifted his hand to heaven and declared that his hands were clean from these things and called God and angles to witness it..
5 witness Samuel[-----] Warner said immedeately
