The high council was organized 21 July 1846 to preside over all the Latter-day Saints then living east of the Missouri River. The council's headquarters were at Kanesville, Iowa. Minutebook and papers related to high council meetings, including high council courts. Most of the minutes were recorded by the council's clerk, Evan M. Greene. Some of the minutes in folder 2 were recorded by Jacob G. Bigler. Included in the minutebook are Oliver Cowdery's 5 November 1848 statement upon returning to the Church. Following the minutes are lists of liquor licenses granted (1848) and marriages performed (1846-1848).

Some remark by Bro. Mangum relative to his and he felt like pleading mores for him &c.

Prest James Allred said his son had manifested a good feeling towards bro. Niswanger and that he was handing out to help the poor, and he was glad of it hoped he would continue to do good, he held notes against that man now === a poor widow and he hoped he would still do good and pay his honest debts,,made some remarks relative to such cases..

Prest o. Hyde said in the case of Bro. Niswanger there was a little difference in the course of he had taken and an absolute falsehood,, and the difference was the difference there would be the same is taken Calomile in files or in powders mixed up with sweetmeats it was calomile still and it was swallowed and it would have the same effect..

Bro. Niswanger made some remarks and said he did not do as he had in order transped or the Council of the church but he did intend to see Bro. Hyde, but things rendered it difficult on he did not come down as he expected, he said he had
