a few were pampered & fed on roast goose & [=====] things at the expence of the many, but the money was all gone & there was no benefit of it serving to the poor, & the compt was bound by law & act P of Parliamont for 10,000 & Bonds. He also gave an interesting History if the measures he took in Company with Elders Taylor & P. P. Pratt to desolve the Company said that when any thing appeared, that poked like a point stick

Comp it was his province to back it a little..

Councillor Snow made some remarks or rather allusion that had passed between Bro Joseph Young & Benjamin Clapp & Prest Orson Hyde, and said he thought before any expression was taken by this Council he should like to see them here ----------

Other remarks were made by Prest Hyde Councillor Harris

& Snow. Councillor Harris moved that the course that Prest Hyde had taken to settle the difficulties existing between the Council & Bro Joseph Young & Benjamin Clapp are satisfactory & that this Council appprive his course. Carried

The appel case of Sister Ellen Marinns

As Racheal was called----------

Bishop Johnson stated the decision he had given in the Bishops cort in this case it was that Sister Martinns pay 8 dollars 25 cts to Sister Hamblin & that the gold dust sent form the Valley in a Letter was Sister Martin , Prest Hyde remarked that the matters & facts had been presented before the Bishops court and wished to know if there was any additional [==========]

Bishop Harris Bro Hamblin said those was none and presented a letter to the Council

Prest Hyde said that there had been a fair investigation & decision; but as the case is rather a compleated one he thought it had better come before
