you are getting alone So well you

[top upside down] please write as you have appe-must tell you why I write

Speak of haveing a nice Orchard & in Steed of David about ten other comforts I should like to Step days after I got home he was in about the time the grapes are taken Sick with the Mountain ripe I could put a few out of Sight feaver & is not quit recovie recovered your children whom you name in yet but is able to be around your letter I can not remember only

& I thought reather then have you wate any longer for a letter as you desired by return of mail I would Scrath a few lines myself but you must excuse all my blundres for I am a very poor Speller still

I gess you will be able to make out, it is dark I must Stoop & get
