Bro. Thomas Bird said the Brethren were dissatisfied with Bro. Benson's course in the Branch where we was acting as teacher and by visiting among the brethren he had learned that there was a general dissatisfaction concerning him said he had heard bro Benson teach that it was unnecessary for any person to be always praying to the father for his spirit, only let his works,, said also that Bro. Benson had taught that when there was no record kept only what was kept by this people.. Bro. Levi Bracken said as to his knowledge of any evil in Bro Benson he had none, but he knew there was a general dissatisfaction=said he had heard Bro. Benson at different times teach his ren to pray, to attend their family prayers at least twice a day- he had heard him teach that each one had a guardian angel, and that angel would bring all things to light- said relative to the case between Bro Benson & Bro. Curtis at the fast meet- ing, both were a little iretated, and Bro. Curtis threatened watching Bro. Benson and if he saw any chance for it, would have him turned out of the his office..----- Councillor Lyman Stoddard spake relative to the cattle Case refered to by bro R. Thorn, said it was as near as bro, Thorn had told it as he could recollect, said the difference of was not so much in principle as in as in feelings.

Bro. === Benson spake relative to the dances &c.

The case of Mary Stanport against against Bro

Benson as her paper No. 1 was brought up.. Mary Stanport

complains that Bro. Benson after selling her his farm without reserving the improvement in whole or in part, did remove a part of said improvement, ( to wit)

one calf pen, one pig pen, a chair from the stable door, a bench from the side of the Stable, also a quantity of logs that lay near the house which were to build a place between
