Councel Stoddard told saw him and he made his confesion.

Councell Johnson made allusions as to the arrangement and the order of Dancing spoke of his satisfaction in not having occasion to reprove any for their conduct.

Motion that those appointed have the Privilege of of appointing Presidents and give their Authority in writing and that only for speicial occasions, Carrie

B King said that there were Brethren in Indian Creek what wanted to run by the order of the Council and wanted to get up as his own order A Dance was got up and a number of Young Men came in from other Branches and Crossed those out who had the Dance got up A President was appointed over them and they were unwilling to attend the Dance.----------

Councellor Johnson said he was going out there but would not go, Counsellor Stoddard said that he he had attended and good order was preserved.

Br Coons said that at Mill Branch there was a man who had been disfellowshiped and his name was Published in the Guardian, Br Sw===== but he and that the President of the High Priest Quorum had made it all right, he came into our Dances and drank Liquor, and made considerable confession, and the Boys also, in consequence of his course of action

He wanted to know if he was fellowship as he wanted to know how to be able to deal with him.

President Orson Hyde said he came to me and told me he was going to have a party and asked me to go but did not tell me when he was going to have to his party. And dismissed the case he said he was disfellowshiped.

Br Rawlins wished the attention of the High

Council he said Br Rawlins had a waggon made
