1846 July-1851 February_Page_207 ] upon Bro. Kelly to state where my claim was and where the line run it was with good feelings; when I pointed out the line he called me a Goddamned liar, and struck me a blow that knocked me down..

Bro. Joseph Kelly said, I was preparing to go down to Missouri, and wanted to fence in my yard before I went. and early in the morning while I was getting my implements for the purpose Bro Meacham came very hastily, and said what are you doing here, I said I was going to fence up my yard, he said well dont join my fence- I said I was going to run up my fence to the corner-He observed if you do I will throw it down

I said I do not caleulate to join yours, I explained to him that the fence is the line. he said you are

I liar. I then told him to go out.. He then struck at me twice and I parried of the blows, I then struck him with the heal of my hand, my fingers being sore, and there I jerked and he fell down,, and I kept him, down, He called for Durfee- I jammed him down to the ground three times-He said let me go-He got up and struck me again I then struck three times with my boot.. I deny taking the name of the Lord in vain.. Brethren of that I am not guilty, and when I find I have done wrong I feel like a tellowed rag. Bro-

Joseph Young bro't the charges to me and I [=====] them

I told him I did not feel like having the thing bro't before a community of men, but before a Bishop court, or before the High Council and that would be a decision of the matter, Bro. Joseph Young and James Snow and myself went to Bro. Meacham together, and we made explanations relative to the fence and the standing line.. I never calculated to interrupt Bro. Meacham stack- We have neighbored together and I am willing to let things pass..
