Previous to the opening of the Council the question of order on the point of the clerks calling the names and seeing the Councillors, seated and vacancies filled ,in case of the absence of any one of the Councilors, before prayers, was agitated and several of the Councilors spake on this subject pro. & con. (To Wit) Geo. W. Harris

J. M. Benson, Jas. Allred, Geo Coulson, N. S. Bulkley

Jacob G. Bigler & Aaron Johnson. Prest O. Hyde coming in the question was submitted to him..

He said the Prest of the Council had a right to conduct, and direct the order of the Councils.. He said he could not recommend establishing a precedent, but he would say if you have an order let the members of the Council come together, get their seats, and let the clerk call the names and have all vacancies if any filled, and then attend to prayers.. He refered to the unnecessary delays in all Legeslative bodies, assising from questions of order.. Prayer was then made by Councillor Geo. Coulson.. The clerk called the names, Councilors all present but Wm. Snow Harlow Redfield was called upon to fill his place.. The clerk read the former minutes,, Wm Snow came in and took his place..

Councillor J. M. Benson made some comments on the minutes.. Prest O. Hyde said he understood there were some who threatened taking vengance, and had said they would resort to brutal means if action was had in this Council and refered to Councillor L. Stoddard spake relative to the manners

in which the Council should meet these cases, said if the Council not handle such cases the Law of the land could,, refered to the late election and the candidates &c said brother J. D. Parker came to Bro. Geo. A, Smith, E. T. Benson and himself and wished us to nominate a deputy to act in his place, as he was not able to do it, and we declined, telling him to
