to whom he could talk when he could see them..

There was no spirit of confession but of gratification was manifest in him..

He did not feel to say much, he did not make many claims, then were some places where he had claims but they were personal or mostly so..

The vote was called and he was cut off from the church, none but Peter Haws voting against it..

Peter Haws said he was to much after the Pres. O. Hyde offered a few remarks on this subject, pattern of the man that had just spoken said he was irritable , he had told several and then spake upon the request of Peter Haws members of that quorum he see if they could to call together the Council of 50. said he did not be called together, he knew it was the not feel himself at liberty to do so, the said privilege, and their indispensible duty to Council having been adjourned sendie from assemble and counusel together for the well fare

Winter Quarters, and to be at the call for the of this people.. However others might feel it first Presidency in the Valley..

was not their prerogative to call them together

Bro L. Woodworth, said as to the talk between he did not feel so.. I know & testify before

Bro Hyde & Bro Haws he did not know,, and God and angles if this Council were convened he did not want to talk much, as he did not it would be a benefit to this people,, he spoke

I speak the sentiments of my heart, I fear no man, I fear God all the day long and the might,, I know that an investigation before that Council would be of advantage to Bro Hyde and myself..
